Batoi Received ISO 9001:2015 Certification for Quality Management

Bhubaneswar, India – June 28, 2014—Batoi, a leading software development automation company, is delighted to announce that it has achieved the ISO 9001:2015 certification. This certification underscores Batoi's commitment to quality and innovation.

The ISO 9001:2015 certification is a globally recognized standard for quality management systems. It sets out the criteria for a quality management system and is designed to help companies align their products and services with customer needs, and to consistently provide a reliable service by defining clear business processes.

Batoi underwent a stringent audit and an ongoing evaluation process to achieve this certification. This certification not only implies that Batoi has adopted a quality management system that considers all processes designed to meet international quality standards but also testifies to its commitment to continual improvement, customer satisfaction, and operational efficiency.

As a result of its ISO 9001:2015 certification, customers can have even more confidence in Batoi's commitment to quality and high standards. It is a reassurance that the products they purchase, subscribe to, and use are developed under a quality management system that meets internationally recognized quality standards.

Mr. Ashwini Kumar Rath, CEO of Batoi, expressed his pride in the ISO 9001:2015 certification, stating, "This certification is a significant milestone for Batoi. It underscores our unwavering commitment to continuous improvement and delivering exceptional value to our customers."
